Clients: McDonald's, Mars (SNICKERS), Texas Instruments, Applied Materials, Edwards

Client Work

- Drove 3x digital team revenue growth from 2024 to 2025 by winning new clients and deepening partnerships with existing ones.
- Employee advocacy (2025): built a one-day LinkedIn Social Ambassador workshop with AI prompt templates for a global semiconductor client; within three weeks, 77% of participants posted or shared brand content and company-page followers grew 251.9%.
- Tech storytelling (2025): explained chip technology through a six-post series of everyday analogies, optimized with A/B-tested CTAs and retargeting; reached 1M+ users with 11K+ clicks, 2–3% average engagement, and a 57% lift in social buzz around the brand and AI.
- B2B page building (2024–2025): repositioned a semiconductor brand's Facebook page around an engineer persona and four content pillars, growing followers 40% in 14 months with engagement consistently in the top two among peers.
- Generated 660K+ website clicks (3x target) and 10M+ video views for a national healthcare campaign through a full-funnel media strategy.
- Built an innovative creator program for a QSR brand based on long-term, low-key collaboration, averaging a 14.05% Instagram engagement rate across annual campaigns.
- Lead a four-person team across strategy, execution and reporting for tech and consumer accounts.

AI Initiatives

- AI in team workflows: proactively evaluate and introduce AI tools to raise team efficiency, including an AI meeting-notes tool rolled out to 30 users.
- AI search visibility: developed a method to measure brand presence in ChatGPT, Claude and Perplexity answers.

Account Manager & Digital Consultant May 2023 – Aug 2024

Clients: McDonald's, Texas Instruments, Boehringer Ingelheim, Gilead

- Employer branding campaign (2024): built on a reverse-recruitment idea, with millennials encouraging their retired parents to return to work; achieved 100% of a QSR brand's full-time hiring goal, generated 1.13M KOL impressions, and the brand was recognized by the government as an elderly-friendly workplace.
- Turned social and audience data into insights that shaped content strategy and creative.
- Planned and optimized paid digital campaigns against KPIs, adjusting in flight.
